Re: March 7,8 Hotel

David

I booked a flight that arrives around 8 AM and departs about 7 PM on Tuesday March 8.

I also wanted to let you know that I have been asked to give the keynote address at the Goldschmidt conference in Prague for the session Giant Oil Spills and Environmental Impact: Past Lessons and Future Predictions Convenor: Bill Mahaffey.

I am assuming that Exxon would not object to my making this presentation based upon what we generate for the legacy book. But I am also wondering if Exxon would be willing to cover my travel expenses since the meeting does not cover travel.
